

Study QUESTIONS

Ep. 1058: Do You Communicate or Just Talk?

<https://christianquestions.com/character/1058-communicate-2/>

See:  CQ Rewind
SHOW NOTES

1. How is communication portrayed in the Bible? How does it differ from communication today? (See Galatians 6:6, 1 Timothy 5:22, Hebrews 13:16, 1 Timothy 6:18)
2. What is the common ground of our Christian communication? What should the purpose behind our communication be? (See Hebrews 10:21-25)
3. What is the foundation of being able to communicate well?
(Return to this question at the end of the study to add any new thoughts learned from the rest of the podcast)
4. Who/What should we listen to first and foremost? What should the purpose behind our listening be? (See James 1:19-22)
5. How much of others' stories should we listen to? How do we listen to their stories without listening to gossip? (See Galatians 5:13-15)
6. What are some steps that you can take to improve your listening?
7. What is the best way to monitor our words?
8. What lessons about communication can we learn from Ephesians 4:25-32?
9. What can you do when you don't feel capable of being properly spiritual when you need to communicate? (See Romans 12:17 and Proverbs 25:11-12)
10. What must you do to communicate with clarity? How can you accomplish this?
(See Mark 7:20-23)
11. How does humility relate to strength? How can humility help us communicate better?
(See Romans 12:14-17, James 3:13-15)