SHOW NOTES

1. What can we learn about the End Times resurrection from the teachings of the Old Testament? (See 1 Samuel 2:6, Job 14:13-14, Daniel 12:2, Psalm 16:10)
2. What does each of the three words translated “resurrection” mean? Which words does Jesus use to raise the dead? (See Mark 5:38-42, Luke 7:12-15, John 11:23-24)
3. Why did Jesus raise the dead if they were just going to die later on? What can we learn about the resurrection from these examples?
4. How is the resurrection described? (See 1 Peter 1:3, John 5:28-29, Luke 14:13-14)
5. Who are the “first fruits” of the resurrection? Why? How does this resurrection happen? (See 1 Corinthians 15:20-23, 50-53, Romans 6:4-8, 8:28-29, 12:2, James 1:17-18)
6. What are the two major categories of the resurrection? Which one do the Old Testament heroes fall into? Why? (See Acts 24:14-15, Hebrews 11:35-36, 39-40)
7. What is the process of the resurrection for the rest of mankind? What is its purpose? (See 1 Timothy 2:3-6, Matthew 12:36-37, 41-42, 1 Corinthians 15:21, 2 Peter 2:9)
8. What will the resurrection process look like after the world is raised from the dead? (See Jeremiah 31:28-34, Isaiah 35:8-10)
9. What will happen once the resurrection work is done? (See 1 Corinthians 15:24-28)
10. How do you feel about the true resurrection process? What will you do to better prepare for the times ahead?
