SHOW NOTES

1. Is God the author of confusion? If not, why did He cause confusion by altering the people's languages? (See 1 Corinthians 14:29-30,33, Genesis 11:7-9)
2. How can we use an understanding of flashback as a literary device to resolve events that seem to be out of order? (See Genesis 10:5, 11:1-4,7-9)
3. Does God live in darkness or light? Why is it written that He makes darkness His hiding place? (See Daniel 2:21-22, James 1:17, Psalms 18:7,9,11,27-29)
4. What are some examples of God's presence shown in clouds? What were the purposes of these clouds? (See Exodus 13:21, Leviticus 16:2, Nehemiah 9:19, Psalms 97:1-2,5-6)
5. What is the entire second commandment? How does this explain God instructions to Israel to build the Ark of the Covenant? (See Exodus 20:3-6, 25:17-19)
6. Does God forbid us to create imagery of any kind? If not, what makes a graven image unacceptable? (See Numbers 21:6-9, 2 Kings 18:4-5, John 3:16)
7. What provokes God's anger? Does it last forever? If not, what will follow its end? (See Jeremiah 17:4,31:34, Isaiah 53:6, Psalms 103:12-14, 1 Corinthians 15:25-28)
8. Does God ever forsake His children? Why did Jesus cry out that God had forsaken him on the cross? (See Psalms 10, 22:1, 21-22, Isaiah 53:6, Matthew 27:45-46, Luke 23:46)
9. Can we trust God to always deliver us? How does this deliverance come to us? (See Psalms 46:1-2, 145:17-19)
10. How can distinguishing between temporary emotion and eternal purpose help you understand how God is working in your life?
