SHOW NOTES

1. How does the Bible define sin? How do the humanists in our society determine right from wrong?
2. How does the Bible describe those who mock God's apparent lack of attention? Why is this dangerous? (See Isaiah 5:18-19, Psalms 10:2,11)
3. What is the first major step to being sensitized to sin? (See Exodus 20:3, Isaiah 5:20)
4. How can entire societies become desensitized to sin? Why must we always look up for the true light? (See Luke 14:34, Romans 1:20-25, 2 Corinthians 11:13-15)
5. What are the three subtle peer pressure steps to avoid being desensitized to sin? What can this bring us? (See Psalms 1:1-3, 26:4-5, Proverbs 2:11-12, 13:20, Job 23:10)
6. What guidance does the Apostle Paul give us on what common ground we should engage with the world around us? Why? (See 2 Corinthians 5:20, 6:14-18)
7. What are the three different types of sin? How can we overcome them? (See Matthew 5:22,29,30, 1 John 1:9, 2:15-17, Hebrews 4:16, James 5:16)
8. If we are to avoid things which may desensitize us to sin, does that mean we should avoid engaging with those in the world? Why or why not?
9. What can we learn from Jesus' interaction with the rich young ruler to help us during our walk? (See Mark 10:17-25)
10. Have you become desensitized to sin? If so, what will you do to become sensitized again?
