SHOW NOTES

1. What can we learn about God's design for marriage from Adam and Eve's relationship? (See Genesis 2:18-25)
2. What is the first basic, scriptural kind of love that applies to marriage? How can we strengthen this form of love for our spouse? (See Titus 2:4-5)
3. What is the second kind of love that applies to marriage? How can we show this love to our spouse? (See 1 Peter 4:8, Matthew 5:43-44, Ephesians 5:25)
4. What should you do when you are in a physically or mentally abusive relationship?
5. How can we show love to our spouse when we don't love them romantically? Why is this important to fight for a broken marriage? (See Romans 1:28,31, 2 Timothy 3:1-3)
6. What are some things you can do to act in "agape love" instead of resigning to desperation? (See Colossians 3:23-24, Ephesians 4:25-27, Proverbs 19:11-13)
7. What are four small steps we can take to fix a broken marriage? (See Matthew 5:27-30, 6:33, Luke 16:10, 13, Matthew 7:24-25, 1 Corinthians 7:10-14)
8. What is the difference between acceptance and resignation? Why is it important for us to pursue acceptance instead of resignation? (See Galatians 5:22-23)
9. What are the different responsibilities of husbands and wives in Christian marriages? (See Ephesians 5:21-31)
10. Do you have a broken marriage? What about other relationships? If so, what will you do to mend the broken relationships in your life?
