SHOW NOTES

These questions might be good prompts for a testimony or sharing meeting:

1. How can you relate to Howie's Christian life from the beginning of the story? Explain.
2. In what ways do you feel you are sincerely seeking to be a better person – more like Jesus? Why do you feel this way? (See John 8:28-32, 17:15-19)
3. How do you find contentment in your life and your Christianity? Is this a good place for you to be in? If you are discontented, what changes do you need to make?
4. Have you ever had an experience that turned your life upside down? How did you respond?
5. Did this life experience eventually turn around? How did you cope with the changes it brought? (See John 8:31-32)
6. Looking back at hard times you have experienced, what kind of growth have they produced? Do you see spiritual growth, or do you feel dragged down by these experiences? (See James 1:2-4, Romans 12:1-2)
7. How does Howie's journey through the tragedy of his marriage breakup give you hope or inspiration? How does it help you to be willing to share your difficult times with others? (See John 8:12, Romans 12:4-9)
