SHOW NOTES

1. Review the names of God from Part I: Give a short description of the meaning of each name:
Elohim (Genesis 1:1-5,9,24-26); Jehovah (Genesis 2:7, 12:1-4); Jehovah El Elyon (Genesis 14:18-20);
Adonai Jehovah (Genesis 15:1-2); El Shaddai (Genesis 17:1-6); Jehovah Rapha (Genesis 20:17-18)
El Olam (Genesis 21:32-b)33); Jehovah-jireh (Genesis 22:13-18).
2. Moses and God (Exodus 3:10-15)
 - a) What did God want Moses to do? What did Moses initially call God? Why did he call Him by that name?
 - b) When Moses asked Elohim what name he should tell the children of Israel, what did God say?
 - c) What is this name in verse 14? What did His name promise Israel? What does His name promise us?
3. What is the significance of Jehovah Sabaoth? (Exodus 12:41-42)
 - a) David and Goliath: Where did David find his strength? (1 Samuel 17:44-45, Psalms 24:7-10)
 - b) Do you see God as Jehovah Sabaoth – Lord of all around us? Do you give God credit, or do you get caught up in the details of your life? Do you see God as involved in all you do?
4. How do the first three Commandments of the Law help us to define God? (Exodus 20:1-9)
 - a) How does God describe Himself in the first Commandment?
 - b) Why is the Lord a “jealous” God?
 - c) What does reverence look like in our approach to our Lord, both in the way we speak to Him and of Him, and in the way we act?
5. Explain sanctification and holiness – first with the Sabbath Day then with the people. (Exodus 20:10-13)
 - a) What was God’s name for this work?
 - b) Are we sanctified? How do you see this working in your life – do you feel set apart from the world?
6. What is the job of a shepherd? How did David fulfill this role? (Psalm 23)
 - a) What are some of the things David delighted in during his response in Psalms 37:3-6?
 - b) What is required of us by Jehovah Ra’ah? Have you provided Him with these three things?
7. Why did Gideon build an altar to Jehovah Shalom? What does this name mean? How do you wait on God’s time and God’s way during times of trouble? How have you found peace in His overrulings in your life? Explain.
8. Describe the ten different ways Jehovah is mentioned in Psalms 18:1-2. What did David need in verses 3-6? How did God affect David’s deliverance in Psalms 18:29-33? Explain the lovely picture of “hind’s feet on high places.”
9. What does the beautiful Psalms 46:6-11 tell us about the future? What is required of us in verse 10?
10. What do we gain by knowing all the names and descriptions of God in the Scriptures? How do you use God’s many names? (Psalm 9:10)
