SHOW NOTES

1. What does it mean to have “like precious faith,” or the “same kind of faith” as the apostles? How does this faith connect us to God’s promises? (2 Peter 1:1-4)
2. What is the transformation required of a disciple of Christ? (Romans 12:1,2, 1 Peter 1:14)
 - a. How are we “transformed from glory to glory”? (2 Corinthians 3:18)
 - b. In what way are we a “new creature”? (2 Corinthians 5:17)
3. Why are the righteous acts of Jesus the foundation of the plan of God? In what way do they enable believers to understand and receive God’s promises? (2 Peter 1:1, Romans 5:18-19, 1 Corinthians 15:20-22)
4. Explain why 2 Peter 1:3 should give us assurance in our daily walk in Jesus’ footsteps. (Also consider James 1:17-18, Ephesians 2:18-22)
5. What is your personal responsibility as a follower of Christ? (2 Peter 1:3, 2 Timothy 2:15-16, 1 Peter 5:6-10) In which of these areas do you struggle most? What small step can you take this week to improve in any of these things?
6. How do God’s promises provide strength and deliverance during temptation and trial? What practical steps are given to help us recognize God’s provisions for us during these times? (1 Corinthians 10:12-13, Psalms 32:8, 34:7)
7. What other promises are we given that help us through troublesome experiences? (Philippians 4:7, 2 Corinthians 4:7-10, Romans 8:28,35, 38-39)
8. What can you do to be more attentive to God’s guidance and support when undergoing trial or temptation?
9. What is the final position offered to the faithful who fully utilize the power of God’s promises? (2 Peter 1:4, Ephesians 2:4-8)
10. What is the progression of growth in maturity in Christ illustrated in 2 Peter 1:5-7?
11. What is the result of those who lack these qualities? What is the result in those who actively practice these qualities? (2 Peter 1:8-11)
